BEYOND NEW

As the year begins we each try to reach a new horizon. The Sophomores try to adjust to the new atmosphere. Juniors are preparing for their senior year. Seniors are just trying to survive their last year of high school. And of course, the teachers are putting up with everyone. They are preparing us for when we get out into the real world.

We each do some part to make the year

Josh, Ricky, Nicky, and Chuck are clowning around after school.

Tasha and Cheryl are exhausted after doing the Homecoming Pep Rally.

Danny, Debbie, and Christina enjoy watching the homecoming parade.

HORIZONS

seem special. When we look back on our years in high school we will remember what we did to cross our horizon. Our high school friends may move far away, but the memories will always be there. We will think back on the good and bad times we had. Each of these are things that aid us in reaching the many horizons that we set for ourselves. Our "Horizons" might change, but the things we did to get there will not.

▲ Friends are Forever!!

◆ Ginny and Andrea say hi.

Jennifer and Taunia are all smiles.

A NEW BEGINNING

▲Christy, Tonya, and Christy enjoy talking before first period.

◆The five stooges.

♥Sophomores, Eric and Mark, are happy to be out of class.

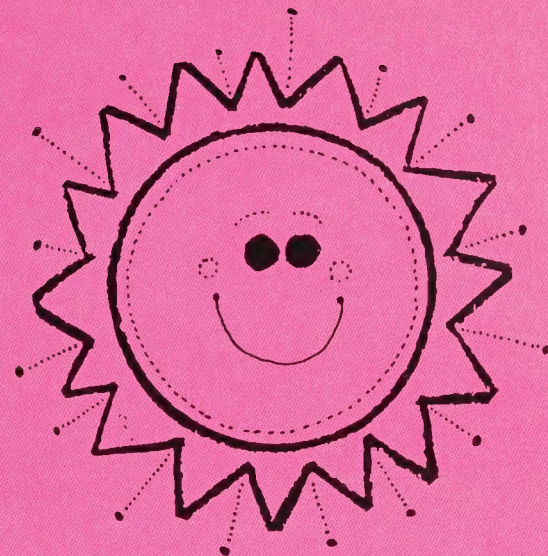

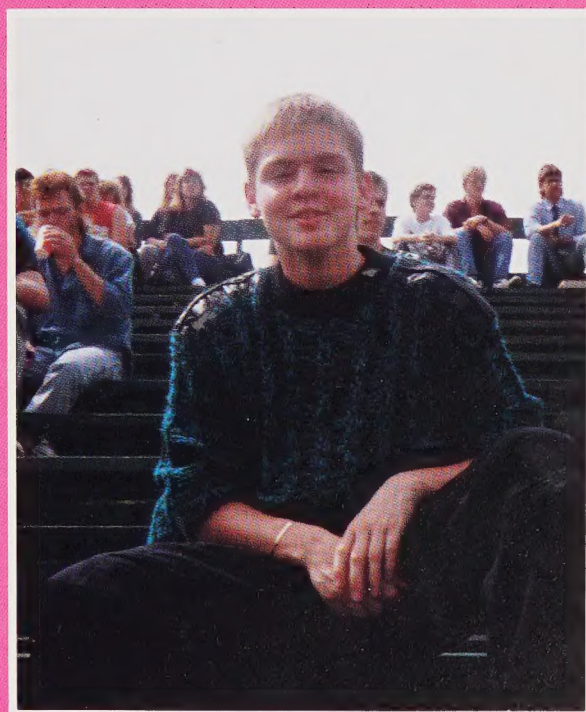

▲ Ayez un bun weekend.

♥ Seniors Danny Jones, Mark Simpson, and Eric Case are excited about Friday's game.

As the school year has progressed many changes have taken place. The major changes are the addition of the new buildings, renovation of existing buildings, the addition of new staff members and the new principal, Mr. Carroll Mullins. The "new look" for East Henderson will continue through the next couple of years until the project is finally completed.

ONE MOMENT IN TIME

The prom of 1990 was held at The Grove Park Inn on the night of May 12. The theme was "One Moment in Time." The ladies arrived in beautiful dresses and their dates looked spectacular in their tuxedos. At the prom everyone looked great, many even looked unrecognizable.

Juniors and Seniors danced for hours with the beats of The Gastons. The night that had been planned for months became a night that seemed to last forever and a night to never forget.

Ian Ballard toasts to his beautiful date, Jennifer Mason.

Jen Catalino and her date take a rest from dancing

Let's dance!

GRADUATION

Graduation for the Class of 1990 has finally come. It is a time to cry for all the good times and laugh at the fun times. A time to show your love and say the good-byes. A time to look ahead and hold fond memories of the past close to your heart. It is a sad moment as graduates realize this is the last time their class will all be together.

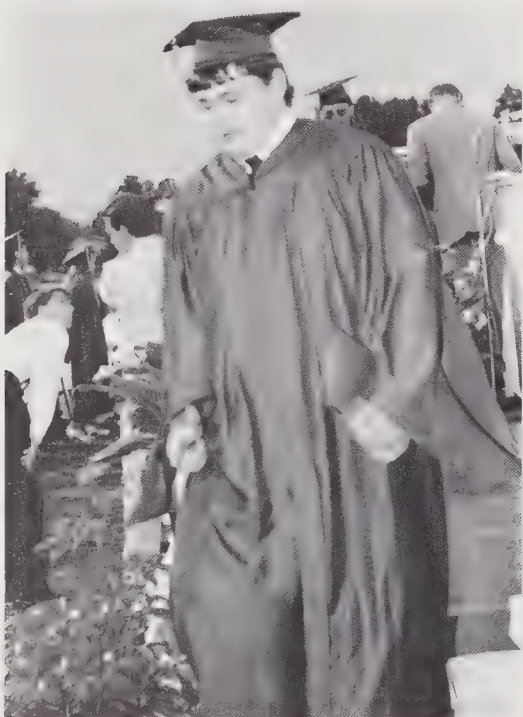

Graduates will make decisions to go to college or get jobs. They will face new tomorrows full of freedoms and challenges. No matter what choices they make, your friends at East Henderson High will never forget you. We all wish you the best of luck in all that you do.

Members of the Honor Block lead the Class of 1990.

Mr. Manis speaks to our future leaders.

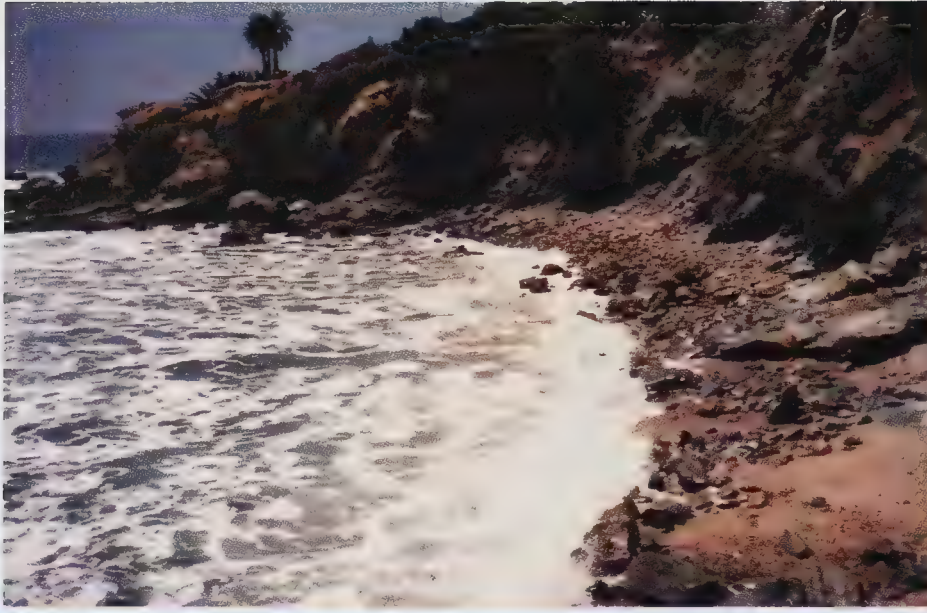

Don't you all feel like crying now?

◆ Pam Johnson smiles at a friend.

STRINGS

Many orchestra members performed in music camp orchestras during the summer. Camps such as: The Brevard Music Center, Appalachian State University, Western Carolina University, and The Governor's School in Winston-Salem. Dennis Heatherly, Jennifer Griswold, Matthew Hawk, and Sarah Black were selected from the East High Ensemble to perform with the North Carolina Honors Orchestra in November, 1990. Many sophomores, juniors, and seniors auditioned to perform with the Western Regional All-State Orchestra for a week in Boone, North Carolina in March, 1991. Renee Moore, Christy Bayne, Sarah Black, and Jennifer Griswold were members of the Hendersonville Symphony Youth String Quartet and the Adult Symphony.

The East High Ensemble was extremely busy over the year with performances at schools in the community, churches, weddings, and charity organization fundraisers.

As you can see being an orchestra members is more than attending class 4th period. The other activities put the "icing on the cake" and makes orchestra life come alive to us.

And when the chief shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory, that fadeth not away.

1 Peter 5:4

This poem was written for and dedicated to

Steven Anders,

Who was lost in a car accident during spring break of 1990.

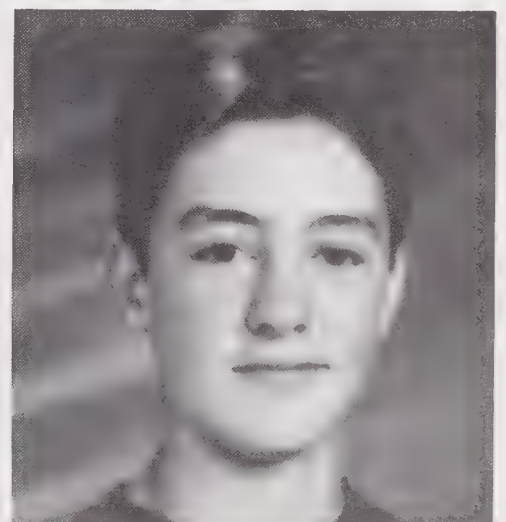

I never got to tell you how much you really meant to me, how much I loved you, how much I care. You were so dear to everyone, to friends as well as the family and I. I never really thought of how much I should cherish my life, how long it could last. It took you at 16 years old to bring to my mind how lucky I was to be able to live into the future and remember my past.

There is some reasons of which we do not know, why God decided, that it was your turn and chosen time to go. Your memory will live forever in all your loved ones and friends, and you can look down from heaven and see me, as I will see you when my life ends.

But until the day comes, when again I shall see you alive and well, and happier than on earth you could ever be. I wrote this poem to let everyone know how much I loved you, Steven Anders, and how much you meant to me.

Brandy,
Trust in the Lord with all
thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy way acknowledge him and he
shall direct thy paths;

Kim Banks

Kim,
It takes a lot of planning
and a lot of hard work, too.
It takes a lot of caring to
make a dream come true
and now that you have achieved this goal. May you go on from here to
more success and happiness all your whole life through. We love you.

Candi Williams

BEYOND NEW HORIZONS IS YET TO COME BUT . . .

As our school year comes to a memorable end, we all take the time to look back at this 1990-1991 year. The changes, the emotions shared, the new principal; and most of all, the new graduating class. Soon it will be time for all to say good-bye for one last time. It is those times that we, the Class of 1991, will remember most. Although we had some good times and some bad times, we all recognize that the education received here will carry us through our life and will always be a part of each one of us.

GOOD LUCK TO THE CLASS OF '91

OUR MEMORIES WILL LIVE ON FOREVER . . .
